Plesident R. T. Vann, of the Baptist Female University at Raleigh, spent several days in Scotland Neck last

The people of this community are always glad to see and hear Mr. Vann, which was evidenced by the large audience which greeted him at the Baptist church Sunday morning and Sunday night. At 11 o'clock he presented the claims of the Baptist Female University, giving a brief sketch of the founding and building of the nstitution.

He said it was the original purpose of its trustees to pay cash for all the work, but later there came a demand from the Baptists of the State to complete the building and open it for their girls, and this is the reason there is a debt on the institution.

Speaking strongly for the needs of the institution Mr. Vanu closed with an appeal for a liberal collection and be got it. The contribution made then with what he gathered up Monday amounted to $1,500. When he asked for the collection he made the statement that Mr. N. Biggs would give him $500 if he could raise $1,000 from others. He did it and said it was a magnificent gift, the largest single collection he has taken since he was elected president of the univer-

There was a gathering of minstrel overs that packed the Opera House to the doors last night, that assembled to pay court to Barlow and Wilson's Minstrels, as they appeared on their annual engagement. The performance consisted entirely of modern minstrel attractions. The people went to witness the fin de siecle minstrels of the season, and found them leaders by several lengths, for everything went fast enough to keep the most lively on the qui vive. Their efficient agent told the truth when he said that the company was better this year than ever before. The performance abounds in new features, which kept the audience in a continual state of hilarity, the hit of the evening being made by 'The Great Barlow and Wilson."
